

Well Known Eagles

Gary L. Anderson ('60) United States Congressman, New York

Bill Alexander ('51) United States Congressman, Arkansas

Neil Armstrong ('47) Astronaut, First man on the moon

Charles F. Barber ('33) CEO American Smelting and Refining Co.

Charles E. Bennett ('25) United States Congressman, Florida

Lloyd M. Bentsen ('38) United States Senator, Texas

Jeff Bingaman ('58) United States Senator, New Mexico

Charles H. Bonesteel III ('25) Army four-star General

William Bradley ('57) United States Senator, New Jersey; NY Knicks basketball star

James S. Brady ('55) Press Secretary to President Reagan

John Bryant ('60) United States Senator, Texas

Milton A. Canniff ('23) Cartoonist (Terry & the Pirates, Steve Canyon)

M. Bob Carr ('58) United States Congressman, Michigan

William P. Clements, Jr. ('30) Governor, Texas

Thad Cochran ('52) United States Senator, Mississippi

Barber B. Conable, Jr. ('37) President, World Bank

Jim Cooper ('68) United States Congressman, Tennessee

William E. Dannemeyer ('44) United States Congressman, California

Hal Daub ('51) United States Congressman, Nebraska

John E. Dolibois ('34) U. S. Ambassador to Luxembourg

Hedley W. Donovan ('29) Editor in Chief, Time Magazine

Michael S. Dukakis ('49) Governor, Massachusetts; 1988 Presidential Candidate

Arthur R. Eldred ('12) First Eagle Scout

Gerald R. Ford ('27) President: Vice President, United States
Congressman (age of 14)

Clifton C. Garvin, Jr. ('37) Chairman of Board, Exxon

Richard A. Gephardt ('55) United States Congressman, Missouri

Maurice F. Granville ('31) Chairman & CEO, Texaco

Gerald Greenwald ('49) Chairman, Chrysler Motors

Zenon C. R. Hansen ('26) Chairman, Mack Trucks

Ronald J. Hays ('45) Admiral; Commander, U. S. Navy Pacific Fleet

Chic Hecht ('44) United States Senator, Nevada

Dennis M. Hertel ('61) United States Congressman, Michigan

Alexander Holsinger of Normal, Ill. Became the One Millionth Eagle Scout

Howard W. Hunter ('20) President of the Council of Twelve, Church of the L.D.S.

James Jontz ('65) United States Congressman, Indiana

Ewing M. Kauffman ('31) Owner, Kansas City Royals baseball team

Charles R. Larson ('50) Vice-Admiral; Commander U.S. Navy Atlantic Fleet

James A. Lovell Jr. ('43) Astronaut, Gemini, Apollo

Richard G. Lugar ('46) United States Senator, Indiana

Raymond G. G. B. Malavasi ('44) Head coach, LA Rams football team

J. William Marriott, Jr. President & CEO, Marriott (hotel) Corporation

Sanford N. McDonnell ('42) Chairman, McDonnell Douglas

Emery Moorehead ('69) Chicago Bears football player

John P. Murtha ('46) United States Congressman, Pennsylvania

Jay North ('28) Author of Superman

Samuel A. Nunn, Jr. ('51) United States Senator, Georgia

James R. Olin ('36) United States Congressman, Virginia

Ellison S. Onizuka ('64) Astronaut; perished on the Challenger space shuttle

Charles Pashayan, Jr. ('54) United States Congressman, California

Donald J. Pease ('46) United States Congressman, Ohio

H. Ross Perot ('43) Presidential candidate, 1992

J. J. Pickle ('31) United States Congressman, Texas

Arthur Ravenell Jr. ('41) United States Congressman, South Carolina

J. Roy Rowland, Jr. ('42) United States Congressman, Georgia

Warren B. Rudman ('45) United States Senator, New Hampshire

J. Terry Sanford ('32) United States Senator, North Carolina

John D. Schapiro ('31) Chairman, Boston Metals

Robert L. Scott ('23} WWII ace pilot (Flying Tigers)

William S. Sessions ('47) FBI Director

Richard T. Schulze ('45) United States Congressman, Pennsylvania

Edgar F. Shannon, Jr. ('32) President University of Virginia

Philip R. Sharp ('55) United States Congressman, Indiana

Paul Siple (?) Accompanied Commander Byrd on expedition to Antarctica, 1928;
Invented the Wind Chill Factor

David Skaggs ('57) United States Congressman, Colorado

Ike Skelton ('48) United States Congressman, Missouri

Christopher H. Smith ('67) United States Congressman, New Jersey
Robert F. Smith ('47) United States Congressman, Oregon
Steven Spielberg ('61) Movie Producer
Richard H. Stallings ('57) United States Congressman, Idaho
Richard H. Truly ('52) Astronaut, Sky lab, Apollo-Soyuz
Sam M. Walton ('34) Chairman & CEO, Wal-Mart Stores
John D. Waihee III ('60) Governor, Hawaii
Larry D. Welch ('48) General and Chief of Staff, US Air Force
William C. Westmoreland ('30) General; Commander U.S. forces, Vietnam War
John M. Wright, Jr. ('29) Lt. General; Comptroller General of the Army
Elmo R. Zumwalt ('37) Admiral, Chief of Naval Operations

Other Famous Scouts (not Eagles or unknown) are:

Henry Fonda

Willis Reed

Mark Spitz

Hank Aaron

Richard Roundtree

James (Jimmy) Stewart

James Lovell

Rich Little

David Hartman

Famous Scouters:

John Glenn

Norman Rockwell