What does the community of Jambo97 list members mean to you?
What is special about it?

Notes on Reflections:

This week-long experience for members of Jambo97 is intended to give us an opportunity to reflect on the special experience we are preparing for 25,000 Scouts both near to us and far away.

As with any reflection we are most interested in your thoughts, experiences, and ideas. Please save your judgement for the answers others give to your own heart and conscience. If some one's contribution sparks a memory or inspiration in you - by all means give them credit.

There will be another question tomorrow, but feel free to respond to this one when inspiration strikes - even if it is two weeks later!

Have fun!

Another favor - please hold off on routine questions and comments during the week of November 17-23. We'll dive right back in with those at the end of the week. If someone forgets our request, remember that forgiveness is a virtue, and that the list owner will be sending his own polite reminder.

Yours in Scouting,

Doug and all the Jambo97 List Members

I feel they are very resourceful. They give you advice on topics that you are having trouble with such as camping gear, leadership, and other things you may need help with. They are there when you want some answers on something. Overall, I think they are a very positive influence and should be thanked for what they have done.

This list has been a source of knowledge and inspiration to me. It was this list that first got me really interested in the Jamboree, allowed me to investigate various avenues to attend the Jamboree, and has given me a wealth of knowledge that hopefully I'll be able to use to ensure that the boys have the very best time they can have at the Jamboree.

On a personal note, I have met many wonderful and helpful scouts through this list who have provided me encouragement, their wisdom, friendship and knowledge which have made me a better scouter today.

Here's looking forward to seeing everyone at the Jambo.
