Richard,

I am also very involved in the study of Indian Lore. I agree that Grey Owl is a resource but I would suggest that she check out Crazy Crow, P.O. Box 314, Denison, TX 75021 (903) 463-1366. I have found their merchandise to be more like what I would expect from the descriptions given. If she is looking for beads, some of the best I have found come from my native american friends in Oklahoma. Feel free to e-mail me with any questions. Ben Hunt gets my blood pumping :)
